The future is not set, there is no fate but what we make for ourselves. - Irish Proverb

John J. McAneney is a partner at Timoney Knox. With the firm since 1991, he assists clients in forming corporations, partnerships and limited liability companies, buying and selling businesses, estate planning, tax matters, real estate and employment-related matters, as well as civil and commercial litigation in these areas and insurance defense litigation. Mr. McAneney is admitted to practice in federal and state courts in both Pennsylvania and New Jersey, as well as the United States Tax Court, and is also experienced in litigation matters involving his various practice areas. He has a Finance degree from the University of South Florida, a Juris Doctor and L.L.M in Taxation from the Temple University School of Law. He also holds an MBA (Accounting) from Temple University and held a Certified Public Accountant license for approximately twenty years.

Mr. McAneney is active in his community, serving from 2001-2004 as an Upper Dublin School Director and from 1997-2005 as Solicitor and Vice President of the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce. In 2006 he served as President of the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce. He supports Ambler's Community Cupboard frequently and several youth organizations as well.
